Follow two abolitionists who fought one of the most shockingly persistent evils of the world: human trafficking and sexual exploitation of slaves. Told in alternating chapters from perspectives spanning more than a century apart, read the riveting 19th century first-hand account of Harriet Jacobs and the modern-day eyewitness account of Timothy Ballard. Harriet Jacobs was an African-American, born into slavery in North Carolina in 1813. She thwarted the sexual advances of her master for years until she escaped and hid in the attic crawl space of her grandmother's house for seven years before escaping north to freedom. She published an autobiography of her life, Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, which was one of the first open discussions about sexual abuse endured by slave women. She was an active abolitionist, associated with Frederick Douglass, and, during the Civil War, used her celebrity to raise money for black refugees. After the war, she worked to improve the conditions of newly-freed slaves. As a former Special Agent for the Department of Homeland Security who has seen the horrors and carnage of war, Timothy Ballard founded a modern-day "underground railroad" which has rescued hundreds of children from being fully enslaved, abused, or trafficked in third-world countries. His story includes the rescue and his eventual adoption of two young siblings--Mia and Marky, who were born in Haiti. Section 2 features the lives of five abolitionists, a mix of heroes from past to present, who call us to action and teach us life lessons based on their own experiences. Harriet Tubman--The "Conductor", Abraham Lincoln--the "Great Emancipator", Little Mia--the sister who saved her little brother, Guesno Maryd--the Haitian father who lost his son to slave traders, and Harriet Jacobs--a teacher for us all.

Nanotechnologies: Concepts, Processing and Applicationsdescribes and explains how nanotechnologies have entered oureveryday lives through scientific and industrial applications withthe emphasis placed on the new perspectives in various fieldsrelated to societal problems. This book details how successivediscoveries of new nanocarbon structures along with progress indifferent microscopy techniques have caused nanomaterials to takeon an increasingly important role in electronics, electrochemicalenergy storage – batteries and fuel cells – and theelectrical conversion of solar energy. Views once seen asfuturistic on nanomachines and nanorobotics, therapeutic hopes andmedical advances – such as those resulting from theapplication of new in-situ drug-delivery nanotechniques – areall presented. The most innovative developments are analyzed in terms ofapplications and should enable the reader to form his or her ownopinion about the reality of the progress that can be expected fromnanotechnologies in the near future. The book offers backgroundreading for teachers in colleges who wish to have an overview onthis subject.

From the pen of Charles Spurgeon:This year we will gather heavenly fruit on earthly ground, where faith and hope have turned the desert into the Lord's garden. If 'men ate the bread of angels' (Ps. 78:25) long ago, why not today? May God grant us the grace to feed on Jesus, and thereby eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan this year!Whether you are familiar with the works of this classic Christian author or discovering him for the first time, Look Unto Me offers a treasury of spiritual insight and inspiration. Charles Haddon Spurgeon was known as the Prince of Preachers, stirring audiences from his London pulpit from 1854 to 1892. Millions more who never heard him preach read his weekly sermons. Based on Spurgeon's original devotional, Morning by Morning, Look Unto Me has now been edited for the modern reader with updated language and additional application commentary by bestselling author, Jim Reimann. Look Unto Me offers 366 of Spurgeon's most powerful devotions, modernizing the language without changing the meaning and adding Scripture references and quotes in the NIV. Jim Reimann, editor of updated editions of Streams in the Desert and My Utmost for His Highest, has also added thought-provoking comments to deepen your understanding of the text, other Scriptures to consider, as well as application and closing prayers. This new edition also includes these new features: * Scripture quotes referenced in the context of each devotion * Scripture and subject indexes * Hymn quotes referenced with composer names and datesThe material is profound, thought-provoking, and life-changing, but easy to follow. With Scripture references from literally every book of the Bible, this is the perfect book to help you dig deeper into God's Word and be challenged to expand your faith. If you long for a deeper walk with Christ and a richer understanding of the Christian faith that can be applied to everyday living, Look Unto Me is the devotional you've been waiting for.

Three women ' s lives are about to change because of a few delicate pieces of china... When Jenny Davis comes across a beautiful vintage tea set at an outdoor market in the English countryside, she ' s convinced it ' s fate. A young bride on a budget, she has her heart set on a vintage tea-party theme for her wedding—and the gorgeous gold-rimmed china before her is perfect. There ' s only one problem. Two other women have fallen in love with it, too. So they come up with a solution: They ' ll share it. They establish a sisterhood, sharing the ups and downs of their lives—from broken hearts and weddings, to family drama and career dreams. When a figure from Jenny ' s past threatens to ruin her big day, Alison ' s teenage daughter pushes her to the limit, and Maggie ' s romantic life is thrown into turmoil, the members of the Vintage Teacup Club band together—proving their newfound friendship will last a lifetime.

Marilyn Jantzen has been grieving for her missing five-year old daughter. Nine months after disappearing at a mall, the authorities still have no clue to her whereabouts. Meanwhile, half-way across the country, Kathryn Rubin has been mourning the loss of her two young children to a drunk driver and a beloved husband who has been in a coma. One night, Marilyn has a dream that kicks off a chain of events that brings the two strangers' worlds colliding together. Revealing deeply hidden family secrets, Marilyn and Kathryn plunge head-on into a snake's nest of terror that threatens to destroy them both.

Nine-year-old Allie Finkle's list of rules helps her navigate a tricky situation with a new girl at school.
