Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.—Jas. 4:8.
Jehovah urges us in his Word to “ draw close ” to him, and he promises us that if we do, “ he will draw close ” to us.
What an uplifting thought that is! Yet, many people think that it is unrealistic to believe that God wants to be close to them; they feel that they are unworthy to approach him or that he is too remote to be approached.

Jehovah Has Drawn Us Close Through the Ransom.

Paragraphs 7 thru 9 show how the forgiveness of sins made possible by the ransom paid by our Lord is another key way in which Jehovah draws us close. We actually quote John 14:6 in paragraph 9, “ No one comes to the Father except Heaven and seeing our loved ones again. We join in fellowship with others to share the love of God with those in need and seeking the lost. For years I have been rhyming words. My mother encouraged me in my early teens to write poetry. Through the years, I have written and lost many poems. Days were busy with a growing household; my husband, myself, three sons and one daughter. Over the years, the Lord has blessed us with ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren I shared some of my poems with my friends Walter and Charlene Hoard. We decided that he would make tracts out of them by adding Scriptures that fit the poems. I asked God to use me, at the age of seventy-two, to touch the lives of others with comfort and fill them with the great love that God has given me. God wakes me up early in the morning, from midnight to until 5 am, to write for Him. I know its from Him because I am blessed when I read it. My desire is to serve God however He allows me. This is my second book of poetry, Meditations was published in January of 2014, by Westbow Press.

I graduated from the University 1985, very positive and hopeful about the future. I looked to the world of possibilities and was very optimistic. In the course of time, I lost my job, came to the ' blackest depression of my life. I then learned this lesson in life. ' There is limit to sky ' s the limit ' philosophy. In life, we battle against circumstances which are not mere fantasies but real, powerful enough to ' quench the fire in us ' . We all have a weak spot, our Security ' heel which makes us vulnerable and fatal especially if we are caught unawares. The limit we experience and our ability to overcome the limit determines the highest we can go. The decision to handle failure proactively and to deal with impossible situations is the key to the highest we can go. The book addresses 15 secrets of life to help you to come out of mess and live the dreams of your life. To the reader this book won ' t just pose many questions but will give you some answers too. It will help you empower yourself by making the most of your God-given talents which many of us don ' t take advantage of. Take the best of what you read in this book, comprehend it, use it and make something out of your life

God has promised to be present with us. He offers us his peace, forgiveness and love. He wants to hear about our lives and meet our needs. Most of all, God extends to us the gift of his presence in our lives. This book shows how we can experience the riches of God's love. "Quiet time" is an opportunity to meet with God - to pray, worship, reflect and study the Bible. It is a part of the day when worries and responsibilities are set aside so that God can speak to us. Discover not only how to set aside a time and place, but how Society to become a peaceful person and meet with a partner. Quiet time experiences go in phases - sometimes exciting and powerful and at other times dry and stale. Stephen Eyre walks us through these dynamics, showing how we can learn from all our experiences - and avoid the trap of guilt. If you want to know God better, this book shows you where to start. Each chapter contains devotional exercises that allow you to put what you are reading into action. Come, and discover the joy of drawing close to God.

In Drawing Near, John Bevere invites readers to explore a life of intimacy with God. Emphasizing the need for obedience, he urges us to practice-just as we would practice anything we hope to improve-our communication with the
